

JEFFERSON COMMUNITY COLLEGE

2008-2009 CONTINUING STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS

This application packet is for Jefferson Community College students who will have completed at least 12 credit hours of study by the conclusion of the Spring 2008 semester, and who will be returning to JCC in the fall. This application is only for those scholarships listed in the attached brochure. Before completing the application form, please fully review the distinct scholarship categories, as well as the specific scholarship descriptions listed in each category. A separate application must be completed for each category of scholarship for which you wish to be considered.

Applicants also must apply for Financial Aid by filing the 2008-09 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). This should be filed in February 2008. Applicants who file the FAFSA later than February may not be considered in the initial review of applications.

Scholarships are distributed over two semesters unless the award is under $500. Scholarships are not continued beyond one year. Eligible students are invited to apply for a scholarship for a second year, but will compete with the applicant pool.

The initial application deadline is April 1, 2008. Applications should be submitted to the Financial Aid Office, Jefferson Community College, 1220 Coffeen Street, Watertown, NY 13601. Applications received after the March 1 deadline may not be considered in the initial review of applications, but will be filed for later review if not all scholarships are awarded in the first review round.

Exceptions to the April 1 deadline are the Nontraditional Student Scholarships and the Active Duty Military Scholarships. The deadline for these two categories of scholarships is August 1. Separate application forms for these two different scholarship programs are available from the Financial Aid Office.

Jefferson Community College

Scholarships for Continuing Students

The following scholarships are for Jefferson Community College students who will have completed a minimum of 12 credit hours by the end of the Spring 2008 semester, and who will be returning to JCC in the fall. Application for any of these scholarships may be made by completing the Jefferson Community College Continuing Student Scholarship Application. These forms are available from the Jefferson Community College Financial Aid Office. Except where indicated, completed applications should be returned to the Financial Aid Office by April 1, 2008 to be considered in the initial review of applications.

Scholarships are divided into six specific categories: General, Business, Liberal Arts, Science, Nursing, and Organizational. A description of each scholarship is listed below within its category. When you have determined which scholarships you are eligible for, be sure to indicate on the front of your application WHICH category of scholarship these awards fall within. You may be eligible for consideration in more than one category. Please submit one copy of the application for EACH category you check on the application form.

Students who apply for and are awarded any of the scholarships will be expected to send a letter of thanks to the scholarship sponsor, with a copy forwarded to the JCC Foundation Office. Scholarship recipients also will be expected to participate as requested in events and publicity recognizing scholarship donors.

The scholarship awards listed below are subject to change.

General Scholarships

General scholarships are not limited by a student's specific field of study.

The Anita Canizares Memorial Scholarship is for a full or part-time student who is a non-native speaker of English. (Sponsor: Steven Brown. Annual, 2005.)
